

Tone Worksheet 2 | Answer Key

1. Suggested Answer: This poem is about the speaker hoping for a strong wind to blow through on a very hot day.
2. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is dramatic and exaggerated. I believe this because he says that the air is so thick that fruit cannot drop, and that the thick air is responsible for the curved and rounded shapes of fruits. These are gross exaggerations as to the effects of the heat.
3. Suggested Answer: This poem is about someone who wishes that she could just forget all of her regrets and mistakes.
4. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is regretful. I believe this because of lines like the following: "Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches [...] / Could be dropped, like a ragged old coat [...] / And never put on again." She has a lot of feelings of guilt and regret. She wishes that she could just let go of these feelings, but she can't. They haunt her.
5. Suggested Answer: This poem is about a person who is expressing their amazement at the miracle of life.
6. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is full of wonder and amazement. I believe this because he says, "I see men walking, and I always feel: / 'Earth! How have you done this? What can you be?'" He is talking about a pretty normal site, seeing someone walking, but he compares it to a lump of dirt rising, speaking, and loving. In other words he is marveling at life itself.
7. Suggested Answer: This poem is about how the speaker enjoys riding to town on a day when there is not a lot of work to do.
8. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is peaceful, happy, content, or relaxed. I believe this because of lines like, "There's never a care may live in the air / That is filled with the breath of our glee." This shows that the speaker is relaxed and happy when he takes these trips to town.

A Modest Proposal Jonathan Swift,2024-05-30 In one of the most powerful and darkly satirical works of the 18th century a chilling solution is proposed to address the dire poverty and overpopulation plaguing Ireland Jonathan Swift presents a shockingly calculated and seemingly rational argument for using the children of the poor as a food source thereby addressing both the economic burden on society and the issue of hunger This provocative piece is a masterful example of irony and social criticism as it exposes the cruel attitudes and policies of the British ruling class towards the Irish populace Jonathan Swift s incisive critique not only underscores the absurdity of the proposed solution but also serves as a profound commentary on the exploitation and mistreatment of the oppressed A Modest Proposal remains a quintessential example of satirical literature its biting wit and moral indignation as relevant today as it was at the time of its publication JONATHAN SWIFT 1667 1745 was an Anglo Irish author poet and satirist His deadpan satire led to the coining of the term Swiftian describing satire of similarly ironic writing style He is most famous for the novel Gulliver s Travels 1726 and the essay A Modest Proposal 1729
