The Process of International Legal Reproduction Rose Parfitt,2019-01-17 That all states are free and equal under international law is axiomatic to the discipline Yet even a brief look at the dynamics of the international order calls that axiom into question Mobilising fresh archival research and drawing on a tradition of unorthodox Marxist and anti colonial scholarship Rose Parfitt develops a new modular legal historiography to make sense of the paradoxical relationship between sovereign equality and inequality Juxtaposing a series of seemingly unrelated histories against one another including a radical re examination of the canonical story of Fascist Italy s invasion of Ethiopia Parfitt exposes the conditional nature of the process through which international law creates and disciplines new states and their subjects The result is a powerful critique of international law s role in establishing and perpetuating inequalities of wealth power and pleasure accompanied by a call to attend more closely to the strategies of resistance that are generated in that process
