Afrikan Mothers Nah Dove,1998-07-23 This book highlights the integrity of some Afrikan mothers who under European domination within the United States and the United Kingdom have used their own experience as a foundation for understanding the impact of cultural imposition on their children s lives Most of these mothers have chosen to place their children in school environments that will educate their children about their culutral roots in order that their cultural memory and knowledge of Afrikan people will be handed down intergenerationally This book looks sensitively at the herstories of women who are undergoing their own process of transformation and offers insights into the historical and continuing struggle of Afrikan people as a cultural entity living within European oriented societies

Afrikan Mothers Nah Dove,1998-07-23 Tells the story of some Afrikan mothers who under European domination with the United States and the United Kingdom have struggled to survive and maintain their and their children s cultural identities within European oriented societies

The Afrocentric School [a Blueprint] Nah Dove,2021-05-03 The Afrocentric School a Blueprint is a handbook that guides the prospective educationist parent student and reader to understand African cultural history from an Afrocentric theoretical perspective Africa is placed in the center of the African experience from the ancient times until now Who were we This book endeavors to answer that question This handbook humbly offers some ideas based on ancient African principles that relate to the critical role of teaching our children Grounded in the love of African humanity women men girls and boys this handbook counters anti African and anti Black beliefs that have been propounded over centuries This work expresses the recognition that there exists a range of African cultural values beliefs and behaviors just as there is amongst the different peoples who conquered Africa In this work the cultural legacy and heritage of Africa is embraced with the aim of providing adequate knowledge to achieve a reawakening of the cultural memory The handbook provides a foundational curriculum for children aged 3 15 years and its standards are based upon expectations developed from a baseline study on child development and education The curriculum can be particularly helpful for those interested in or who are already teaching children of African descent it can appeal to those who have established Afrocentric schools those who are endeavoring to do so those who wish to amplify an existing curriculum those who want to teach their children or those who simply wish to expand their knowledge

The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references

The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave Venetria K. Patton, 2013-01-01 Explores black women writers treatment of the ancestor figure The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave investigates the treatment of the ancestor figure in Toni Cade Bambara s The Salt Eaters Paule Marshall s Praisesong for the Widow Phyllis Alesia Perry s Stigmata and A Sunday in June Toni Morrison s Beloved Tananarive Due s The Between and Julie Dash s film Daughters of the Dust in order to understand how they draw on African cosmology and the interrelationship of ancestors elders and children to promote healing within the African American community Venetria K Patton suggests that the experience of slavery with its concomitant view of black women as natally dead has impacted African American women writers emphasis on elders and ancestors as they seek means to counteract notions of black women as somehow disconnected from the progeny of their wombs This misperception is in part addressed via a rich kinship system which includes the living and the dead Patton notes an uncanny connection between depictions of elder ancestor and child figures in these texts and Kongo cosmology These references suggest that these works are examples of Africanisms or African retentions which continue to impact African American culture

Africana Methodology James L. Conyer, Jr., 2018-10-15 This book critically examines the collection interpretation and analysis of quantitative and qualitative data from an Afrocentric perspective The necessity of interpretive Afrocentric research is relevant to position agency and to locate Africana studies in place space and time This study will provide readers with a compilation of literary historical philosophical and social science essays that describe and evaluate the Africana experience from a methodological perspective Paradoxically the collection presents measurable and qualitative research in order to flush out a global Pan Africanist consciousness

Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon s critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon s Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon s thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon s contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation s wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon s own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory

Being Human Being Molefi Kete Asante,Nah Dove,2021-11-03 Being Human Being express the power in ending the language of race entirely bringing forth a new era in which the term human robust and newly re envisioned eradicates the need for the illusion of categorical racial boundaries

Africa in the 21st Century Ama Mazama,2007-11-21 Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future brings together some of the finest Pan African and Afrocentric intellectuals to discuss the possibilities of a new future where the continent claims its own agency in response to the economic social political and cultural problems which are found in every nation The volume is structured around four sections I African Unity and Consciousness Assets and Challenges II Language Information and Education III African Women Children and Families and IV Political and Economic Future of the African World In original essays the authors raise the level of discourse around the questions of integration pluralism families a federative state and good governance Each writer sees in the continent the potential for greatness and therefore articulates a theoretical and philosophical approach to Africa that constructs a victorious consciousness from hard concrete facts This book will interest students and scholars of the history and politics of Africa as well as professional Africanists Africologists and international studies scholars who are inclined toward Africa

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois's Dialectics Reiland Rabaka's Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climactic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois's rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe's ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academy

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 Parts one and two of this volume present the theoretical lenses used to study the social contexts of education These include long established foundations disciplines such as sociology of education and philosophy of education as well as newer theoretical perspectives such as critical race theory feminist educational theory and cultural studies in education Parts three four and five demonstrate how these theoretical lenses are used to examine such phenomena as globalization media popular culture technology youth culture and schooling This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study This book is appropriate as a reference volume not only for scholars in the social foundations of education but also for scholars interested in the cultural contexts of teaching and learning formal and informal It is also appropriate as a textbook for graduate level courses in Social Foundations of Education School and Society Educational Policy Studies Cultural Studies in Education and Curriculum and Instruction

An Afrocentric Pan Africanist Vision Molefi Kete Asante, 2020-10-29 In An Afrocentric Pan Africanist Vision Afrocentric Essays Molefi Kete Asante engages the age old debate on Pan Africanism by providing an innovative orientation to the established discourse developed during the twentieth century Asante opens an interrogation of the Padmorian tradition of a socialist Pan Africanism by suggesting that a deeper entry into the histories and narratives of the literary economic social and spiritual values of the thousands of African societies scattered throughout the world could sustain a different agency analysis of Pan Africanism without grafting an external idea on the unity of Africa Using his vast knowledge of the history of Africa Asante suggests that the African renaissance cannot take place unless there is a commitment to creating an African community conscious of its own myths origins and economic cultural and philosophical traditions

Stereotyping Africa. Surprising Answers to Surprising Questions Fru Doh,2009-11-01 Characteristically Africans in any Western country are asked so many different questions about Africa as Westerners love to refer to the many countries that make up that huge continent as if Africa were a single nation state So one begins wondering why it is that Africans on the other hand do not refer to individual European countries as Europe simply then the trends and consequences of stereotyping begin setting in just as one is getting used to being asked if Africa has a president or if one can say something in African It is some of these questions that Emmanuel Fru Doh has collected over the years and has attempted answering them in an effort to shed some light on a continent that is in many ways like the rest of the world when not better but which so many love to paint as dark backward chaotic and pathetic

In Pursuit of an African Traditional Dance Thomas Jing,2022-02-28 Africa is rich in neo traditional dances yet not much exists in the form of written literature on the subject Even worse existing documents date back to the colonial period and are often disparaging Dance to Africans is what martial arts are to Asians Embedded in them are some of the solutions to many of the problems wracking the African diaspora gang violence drug addiction and high school dropout rates etc When Guinea s Ballets Africains first bursts on the international scene in the late fifties and sixties the black revolution in the US was in full swing The troupe s emancipatory message enkindled in African Americans a new sense of cultural pride and a return to their African roots For once dance became something else other than the ballet With that burst of enthusiasm came the need to introduce African dances in the academia Most of the research however focused mainly on dances which use drums djembe Departing from that tradition in this detailed and richly choreographed ethnography on the Buum Oku Dance Yaounde Thomas Jing s investigation into a xylophone based dance opens up new research avenues and exposes the challenges involved An Afrocentric theoretical framework to the research counters imperialist notions of African dances thus setting them up as a tool for emancipation

Black Youth Matters Cecile Wright,P.J. Standen,Tina Patel,2009-12-04 How do young black students respond resist and work to transform their school experience How do young people adapt survive and then succeed in spite of their negative school experience For an increasing number of marginalized black youth the paths to social success can actually lie outside school walls Black Youth Matters presents a compelling empirical picture of black youth who creatively respond to permanent school exclusion Structural approaches to social stratification often set the terms of discussion around isolated narratives of individual success stories In this book the authors intervene with a new point of view by focusing instead on collectives of broader black communities They both engage with and move beyond structural models of stratification and education thereby affirming the enduring importance of individual and collective aspiration an impulse that has not been exhausted for black youth even in the face of systematic longstanding and overwhelming inequality Based on long term ethnographic research with young people permanently excluded from school Black Youth Matters examines the resourcefulness of young black people in overcoming the process of school failure to forge more positive futures for themselves This book should be of interest to sociologists educators anthropologists policy makers as well as community activists
