Bevan

Bevan Francis Beckett, Clare Beckett, 2023-07-17 An accessible concise biography about Aneurin Nye Bevan the man and politician behind the creation of the UK National Health Service The creation of the National Health Service was the most significant of the many reforms of the post war Labour government in the UK The man responsible was Aneurin Nye Bevan The son of a Welsh miner he became a local trade union leader at only nineteen In 1929 he was elected as a Labour MP Bevan believed the war was Britain's opportunity to create a new society a position he maintained throughout the conflict When the war ended in 1945 the landslide Labour victory gave him the chance to make this vision a reality Known for his impassioned oratory Bevan's fundamental belief that the new NHS should be freely available to all was ultimately at odds with a government struggling to balance the books He resigned in 1951 over the introduction of charges for prescriptions and glasses With the NHS requiring an ever increasing share of national income this updated edition considers Bevan's legacy as the future of the health service he created is fought over as never before

Critical Failures Robert Bevan, 2013-01-12 Tim and his friends find out the hard way that you shouldn't question the game master and you shouldn't make fun of his cape One minute they're drinking away the dreariness of their lives escaping into a fantasy game and laughing their asses off The next minute they're in a horse drawn cart surrounded by soldiers pointing crossbows at them Tim now has the voice and physique of a prepubescent girl Dave finds that while he lost a foot or two in height he somehow acquired a suit of armor and a badass beard Julian's ears have grown ridiculously long and pointy And Cooper well Cooper has gotten himself a set of tusks a pair of clawed hands and a bad case of the shits He also finds that he's carrying a bag with a human head in it a head that he had chopped off when they were still just playing a game Shit just got real and if they want to survive these four friends are going to have to tap into some baser instincts they didn't even know existed in their fast food and pizza delivery world It's fight flight or try to convince the people who are trying to kill them that they don't really exist Meanwhile a sadistic game master sits back in the real world eating their fried chicken

The Destruction of Memory Robert Bevan, 2007-04-20 Crumbled shells of mosques in Iraq the bombing of British cathedrals in World War II the fall of the World Trade Center towers on September 11 when architectural totems such as these are destroyed by conflicts and the ravages of war more than mere buildings are at stake The Destruction of Memory reveals the extent to which a nation weds itself to its landscape Robert Bevan argues that such destruction not only shatters a nation's culture and morale but is also a deliberate act of eradicating a culture's memory and ultimately its existence Bevan combs through world history to highlight a range of wars and conflicts in which the destruction of architecture was pivotal From Cortez's razing of Aztec cities to the carpet bombings of Dresden and Tokyo in World War II to the war in the former Yugoslavia The Destruction of Memory exposes the cultural war that rages behind architectural annihilation revealing that in this subliminal assault lies the complex aim of exterminating a people He provocatively argues for the fatally intertwined experience of genocide and cultural genocide ultimately proposing the elevation of cultural genocide to a crime punishable by international law In an age in which Frank Gehry I M Pei and Frank Lloyd Wright are revered and yet museums and temples of priceless value are destroyed in wars around the world Bevan challenges the notion of collateral damage arguing that it is in fact a deliberate act of war

The Best of Bevan Michael Bevan, 2002-12-01 Michael Bevan has been responsible for some of the most remarkable and exciting performances in the history of one day cricket His uncanny knack to work the ball into the narrowest gaps his quick and aggressive running and his ability to stay calm and focused in a crisis have seen him dubbed the world's finest limited overs batsman In The Best of Bevan Michael writes about the 30 matches he considers the most memorable of his career Not all are one day games a few even ended in defeat but each says something about the way he thinks the game should be played how he approaches the art of batting and how he deals with the highs and lows of playing international cricket For much of his career Michael has been content to let his performances speak for him Now in this thought provoking wide ranging book he answers his critics reveals what motivates him to succeed at the highest level and explains why he and his famous teammates have enjoyed so much success in recent times
