Personhood and Health Care David C. Thomasma, David N. Weisstub, Christian Hervé, 2013-04-17 PERSONHOOD AND HEALTH CARE This book arose as a result of a pre conference devoted to the topic held June 28 1999 in Paris France The pre conference preceded the Annual Congress of the International Academy of Law and Mental Health Other chapters were solicited after the conference in order to more completely explore the relation of personhood to health care The pre conference was held in honor of Yves Pelicier who led so many of our French colleagues in medicine philosophy and ethics as Christian Herve notes in his Tribute As health care is aimed at healing persons it is important to realize how difficult it is to construct a theory of personhood for health care and thus a theory of how healing in health care comes about or ought to occur The book is divided into four parts Concepts of the Person Theories of Personhood in Relation to Health Care and Bioethics Person and Identity and Personhood and His Relations Each section explores a critical arena in constructing the relation of personhood to health care Although no exploration of this nature can be exhaustive every effort was made to present both conflicting and complementary views of personhood from within similar and different philosophical and religious traditions PART ONE CONCEPTS OF THE PERSON Tracing the origins of the concept of person from antiquity through present day Jean Delemeau provides an historical sketch of the development of a wide range of meanings

Women and the Mafia Giovanni Fiandaca, 2007-09-04 The insightful essays in this book shine a new light on the roles of women within criminal networks roles that in reality are often less traditional than researchers used to think The book seeks to answer questions from a wide range of academic disciplines and traces the portrait of women tied to organized crime in Italy and around the world The book offers up accounts of mafia women and also tales of severe abuse and violence against women

Indigenous Knowledge Production Marcus Woolombi Waters,2018-05-16 Despite many scholars noting the interdisciplinary approach of Aboriginal knowledge production as a methodology within a broad range of subjects including quantum mathematics biodiversity sociology and the humanities the academic study of Indigenous knowledge and people is struggling to become interdisciplinary in its approach and move beyond its current label of Indigenous Studies Indigenous Knowledge Production specifically demonstrates the use of autobiographical ethnicity as a methodological approach where the writer draws on lived experience and ethnic background towards creative and academic writing Indeed in this insightful volume Marcus Woolombi Waters investigates the historical connection and continuity that have led to the present state of hostility witnessed in race relations around the world seeking to further one s understanding of the motives and methods that have led to a rise in white supremacy associated with ultra conservatism Above all Indigenous Knowledge Production aims to deconstruct the cultural lens applied within the West which denies the true reflection of Aboriginal and Black consciousness and leads to the open hostility witnessed across the world This monograph will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Sociology of Knowledge Anthropology Cultural Studies Ethnography and Methodology

Disturbing the Universe Roberta S. Trites, 1998-04-01 The Young Adult novel is ordinarily characterized as a coming of age story in which the narrative revolves around the individual growth and maturation of a character but Roberta Trites expands this notion by chronicling the dynamics of power and repression that weave their way through YA books Characters in these novels must learn to negotiate the levels of power that exist in the myriad social institutions within which they function including family church government and school Trites argues that the development of the genre over the past thirty years is an outgrowth of postmodernism since YA novels are by definition texts that interrogate the social construction of individuals Drawing on such nineteenth century precursors as Little Women and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Disturbing the Universe demonstrates how important it is to employ poststructuralist methodologies in analyzing adolescent literature both in critical studies and in the classroom Among the twentieth century authors discussed are Blume Hamilton Hinton Le Guin L Engle and Zindel Trites work has applications for a broad range of readers including scholars of children s literature and theorists of post modernity as well as librarians and secondary school teachers Disturbing the Universe Power and Repression in Adolescent Literature by Roberta Seelinger Trites is the winner of the 2002 Children s Literature Association s Book Award The award is given annually in order to promote and recognize outstanding contributions to children s literature history scholarship and criticism it is one of the highest academic honors that can accrue to an author of children s literary criticism
