In Defense of Housing Peter Marcuse, David Madden, 2024-08-27 In every major city in the world there is a housing crisis How did this happen and what can we do about it Everyone needs and deserves housing But today our homes are being transformed into commodities making the inequalities of the city ever more acute Profit has become more important than social need The poor are forced to pay more for worse housing Communities are faced with the violence of displacement and gentrification And the benefits of decent housing are only available for those who can afford it In Defense of Housing is the definitive statement on this crisis from leading urban planner Peter Marcuse and sociologist David Madden They look at the causes and consequences of the housing problem and detail the need for progressive alternatives The housing crisis cannot be solved by minor policy shifts they argue Rather the housing crisis has deep political and economic roots and therefore requires a radical response

Exhibiting Atrocity Amy Sodaro, 2018-01-23 Today nearly any group or nation with violence in its past has constructed or is planning a memorial museum as a mechanism for confronting past trauma often together with truth commissions trials and or other symbolic or material reparations Exhibiting Atrocity documents the emergence of the memorial museum as a new cultural form of commemoration and analyzes its use in efforts to come to terms with past political violence and to promote democracy and human rights Through a global comparative approach Amy Sodaro uses in depth case studies of five exemplary memorial museums that commemorate a range of violent pasts and allow for a chronological and global examination of the trend the U S Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington DC the House of Terror in Budapest Hungary the Kigali Genocide Memorial Centre in Rwanda the Museum of Memory and Human Rights in Santiago Chile and the National September 11 Memorial Museum in New York Together these case studies illustrate the historical emergence and global spread of the memorial museum and show how this new cultural form of commemoration is intended to be used in contemporary societies around the world

Insurgent Citizenship James Holston, 2021-06-08 Insurgent citizenships have arisen in cities around the world This book examines the insurgence of democratic citizenship in the urban peripheries of S o Paulo Brazil its entanglement with entrenched systems of inequality and its contradiction in violence James Holston argues that for two centuries Brazilians have practiced a type of citizenship all too common among nation states one that is universally inclusive in national membership and massively inegalitarian in distributing rights and in its legalization of social differences But since the 1970s he shows residents of Brazil s urban peripheries have formulated a new citizenship that is destabilizing the old Their mobilizations have developed not primarily through struggles of labor but through those of the city particularly illegal residence house building and land conflict Yet precisely as Brazilians democratized urban space and achieved political democracy violence injustice and impunity increased dramatically Based on comparative ethnographic and historical research Insurgent Citizenship reveals why the insurgent and the entrenched remain dangerously conjoined as new kinds of citizens expand democracy even as new forms of violence and exclusion erode it Rather than view this paradox as evidence of democratic failure and urban chaos Insurgent Citizenship argues that contradictory realizations of citizenship characterize all democracies emerging and established Focusing on processes of city and citizen making now prevalent globally it develops new approaches for understanding the contemporary course of democratic citizenship in societies of vastly different cultures and histories

Confronting Finance Nicolas Pons-Vignon,Phumzile Ncube,2012 The unfolding economic crisis has unequivocally proved that neoliberal policies were no better for growth than for social progress As poverty and inequality are rising to alarming levels in Europe the old continent seems at a loss to respond Political leaders seem content to liquidate the social gains made by workers struggles A small minority possibly even smaller than 1 per cent associated with the financial sector stands to benefit from a deepening of neoliberalism This new anthology of essays from the Global Labour Column explores Europe s turmoil and challenges the deep rooted consequences of neoliberalism in the North and the South It sheds light on new movements and ideas which are emerging to defend and mobilise workers and points to encouraging new policies and directions which could lay the foundations of a new order that would put decent work and life at its core A number of these come from the South from which the North may have much to learn ILO website

World Literature for the Wretched of the Earth J. Daniel Elam,2020-12-01 World Literature for the Wretched of the Earth recovers a genealogy of anticolonial thought that advocated collective inexpertise unknowing and unrecognizability Early twentieth century anticolonial thinkers endeavored to imagine a world emancipated from colonial rule but it was a world they knew they would likely not live to see Written in exile in abjection or in the face of death anticolonial thought could not afford to base its politics on the hope of eventual success mastery or national sovereignty J Daniel Elam shows how anticolonial thinkers theorized inconsequential practices of egalitarianism in the service of an impossibility a world without colonialism Framed by a suggestive reading of the surprising affinities between Frantz Fanon s political writings and Erich Auerbach s philological project World Literature for the Wretched of the Earth foregrounds anticolonial theories of reading and critique in the writing of Lala Har Dayal B R Ambedkar M K Gandhi and Bhagat Singh These anticolonial activists theorized reading not as a way to cultivate mastery and expertise but as a way rather to disavow mastery altogether To become or remain an inexpert reader divesting oneself of authorial claims was to fundamentally challenge the logic of the British Empire and European fascism which prized self mastery authority and national sovereignty Bringing together the histories of comparative literature and anticolonial thought Elam demonstrates how these early twentieth century theories of reading force us to reconsider the commitments of humanistic critique and egalitarian politics in the still colonial present

Hyenas of the Limpopo Xolani Tshabalala, 2017-11-03 An increasing number of people today cross the Beitbridge border of South Africa and Zimbabwe. This comes with a corresponding growth of creative strategies that seek to aid the crossing of those people and goods that may lack the necessary documentation. Such informal border crossings have come to define one of the important economic regions in Southern Africa: the post-1994 Limpopo Valley. This thesis approaches routine acts of facilitating undocumented border crossings as an everyday social politics with deep historical roots. By use of archival and ethnographic methods, the thesis examines the social history and embodied practices of a variety of actors who engage in undocumented border crossings. A particular focus is placed on the role of private transporters, omalayitsha, who represent an important link between an exclusionary and yet fragmentary migration regime and undocumented travellers. In three theoretical and four empirical chapters, and inspired by border studies as well as the critical realist approach in migration studies, the thesis connects border practice to irregular movement and cheap labour within a regional context defined in part by dispossession. Through thick interpretations of the lived experience of border practice, the study also connects such political-economic processes, e.g. migrant irregularity, labour precarity, and economic informality, to questions of social identity and migrant subjectivities. By situating the figure of the hyena at the centre of Southern African border struggles, the thesis invents an analytical concept that serves both an empirical and a theoretical task. Empirically, it enables a synthetic understanding of how everyday contestations around the possibility to work across the border for low-skill migrants have been interacting through time with broader processes of capital accumulation to partly shape the region's migrant labour system. Theoretically, it shows how facilitation of undocumented border crossings calls for new sociological models that can account for processes that escape binary classification as formal or informal, inclusive or exclusive, legal or illegal, ordered or disordered, thus contributing to a better understanding of the role of migration in the contemporary world.

Allt fler människor korsar idag gränsen vid Beitbridge mellan Sydafrika och Zimbabwe. Samtidigt sker en motsvarande ökning av kreativa strategier som gör att även personer och varor som saknar rätt handlingar kan ta sig över gränsen. Dessa informella gränsvärdningar har kommit att definiera vad som efter 1994 blivit en av de viktigaste ekonomiska regionerna i södra Afrika: Limpopodalen. I denna avhandling betraktas rutinerna vid sådana oregistrerade gränsvärdningar som en vardagens politik med djupa historiska rötter. Genom arkivstudier och etnografiska observationer undersöker avhandlingen en samhällshistoria och en människlig aktivitet där en rad aktörer i en pågående papperslös migration. En viktig roll i sammanhanget har omalayitsha, dvs. privata transportörer som ofta är en viktig länk mellan de papperslösa resenärerna och den migrationsregim som ena sidan står för dem ute och andra sidan är fragmenterad att de till slut passera igenom. I tre teoretiska och fyra empiriska kapitel samt med ett angreppssätt som utgår från gränsstudier, border studies och den kritiskt realistiska skolan inom migrationsstudier syftar avhandlingen till att förstå gränsvärdningens praktik i förhållande till den irreguljära mobilitet och det verskott på billig arbetskraft som ställer sin prägel på en region där många är fattiga och fördrivna. I avhandlingens djuptolkningar av migranternas levda erfarenhet vid gränsen förbinds i sin tur de politiska ekonomiska processerna, irreguljär migration, prekära arbetsvillkor och ekonomisk informellitet med frågor om samhällsidentitet och migrantens subjektivitet. Avhandlingen ser hyenfiguren som central för förståelsen av de gränsskamper vid border struggles som utvecklas i södra Afrika med hyenan introduceras också ett analytiskt begrepp. Empiriskt sett möjliggör begreppet en syntetisk förståelse av hur vardagliga tvister och problem som präglar arbetsmigrantens försök att jobba på andra sidan gränsen verkar samverka med större processer av kapitalackumulering som delvis formar regionens migrantarbetsystem. I teoretiskt avseende visar begreppet hur förhandlingarna som sker vid gränskontrollen klargör behovet av nya sociologiska modeller som kan redogöra för samhällsprocesser som undflyr varje binär klassificering som formell eller informell, inkluderande eller exkluderande, legal eller illegal, ordnad eller oordnad och på så vis bidrar det till en bättre förståelse av migrationens betydelse i dagens värld.
