Black Prophetic Fire Cornel West,Christa Buschendorf,2015-09-01 An unflinching look at nineteenth and twentieth century African American leaders and their visionary legacies In an accessible conversational format Cornel West with distinguished scholar Christa Buschendorf provides a fresh perspective on six revolutionary African American leaders Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Martin Luther King Jr Ella Baker Malcolm X and Ida B Wells In dialogue with Buschendorf West examines the impact of these men and women on their own eras and across the decades He not only rediscovers the integrity and commitment within these passionate advocates but also their fault lines West in these illuminating conversations with the German scholar and thinker Christa Buschendorf describes Douglass as a complex man who is both the towering Black freedom fighter of the nineteenth century and a product of his time who lost sight of the fight for civil rights after the emancipation He calls Du Bois undeniably the most important Black intellectual of the twentieth century and explores the more radical aspects of his thinking in order to understand his uncompromising critique of the United States which has been omitted from the American collective memory West argues that our selective memory has sanitized and even Santaclausified Martin Luther King Jr rendering him less radical and has marginalized Ella Baker who embodies the grassroots organizing of the civil rights movement The controversial Malcolm X who is often seen as a proponent of reverse racism hatred and violence has been demonized in a false opposition with King while the appeal of his rhetoric and sincerity to students has been sidelined Ida B Wells West argues shares Malcolm X s radical spirit and fearless speech but has often become the victim of public amnesia By providing new insights that humanize all of these well known figures in the engrossing dialogue with Buschendorf and in his insightful introduction and powerful closing essay Cornel West takes an important step in rekindling the Black prophetic fire

The Sword and the Shield Peniel E. Joseph, 2020-03-31 This dual biography of Malcolm X and Martin Luther King upends longstanding preconceptions to transform our understanding of the twentieth century's most iconic African American leaders. To most Americans, Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr. represent contrasting ideals: self-defense vs. nonviolence, black power vs. civil rights, the sword vs. the shield. The struggle for black freedom is wrought with the same contrasts. While nonviolent direct action is remembered as an unassailable part of American democracy, the movement's militancy is either vilified or erased outright. In The Sword and the Shield, Peniel E. Joseph upends these misconceptions and reveals a nuanced portrait of two men who, despite markedly different backgrounds, inspired and pushed each other throughout their adult lives. This is a strikingly revisionist biography, not only of Malcolm and Martin but also of the movement and era they came to define.

Martin and Malcolm and America James H. Cone, 1993

My Soul Looks Back James H. Cone, 1986 What is the relationship between my training as a theologian and the black struggle for freedom? For what reason has God allowed a poor black boy from Bearden to become a professional systematic theologian? As I struggled with these questions, I could not escape the overwhelming conviction that God's spirit was calling me to do what I could for the enhancement of justice in the world, especially on behalf of my people. My Soul Looks Back chronicles the author's grappling with these questions as well as his formulation of an answer, an answer that would lead to the development of a black theology of liberation. Firmly rooted in the black church tradition, James Cone relates the formative features of his faith journey from his childhood experience in Bearden, Arkansas, and his father's steadfast resistance to racism through racial discrimination in graduate school to his controversial articulation of a faith that seeks to break the shackles of racial oppression. In describing his more recent encounters with feminist Marxist and Third World thinkers, James Cone provides a compelling description of liberation theology and a vivid portrayal of what it means to profess a faith that does justice. God of the Oppressed James H. Cone, 1997

Said I Wasn't Gonna Tell Nobody James H. Cone, 2018 This autobiographical work is truly the capstone to the career of the man widely regarded as the Father of Black Theology. Dr. Cone, a distinguished professor at Union Theological Seminary, died April 27, 2018. During the 1960s and 1970s, he argued for racial justice and an interpretation of the Christian Gospel that elevated the voices of the oppressed.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Malcolm X, and the Civil Rights Struggle of the 1950s and 1960s David Howard-Pitney, 2004-02-20 The civil rights movement's most prominent leaders, Martin Luther King Jr. (1929-1968) and Malcolm X (1925-1965), represent two wings of the revolt against racism: nonviolent resistance and revolution by any means necessary. This volume presents the two leaders' relationship to the civil rights movement beyond a simplified dualism. A rich selection of speeches, essays, and excerpts from Malcolm X's autobiography and King's sermons shows the breadth and range of each man's philosophy, demonstrating their differences, similarities, and evolution over time. Organized into six topical groups, the documents allow students to compare the leaders' views on subjects including integration, the American dream, means of struggle, and opposing racial philosophies. An interpretive introductory essay, chronology, selected bibliography, document headnotes, and questions for consideration provide further pedagogical support.

Martin Luther King, the Inconvenient Hero Vincent Harding, 2008-01-01 In these eloquent essays the noted scholar and activist Vincent Harding reflects on the forgotten legacy of Martin Luther King Jr and the meaning of his life today Many of these reflections are inspired by the ambiguous message surrounding the official celebration of King s birthday Harding sees a tendency to freeze an image of King from the period of his early leadership of the Civil Rights movement the period culminating with his famous I Have a Dream Speech Harding writes passionately of King s later years when his message and witness became more radical and challenging to the status quo at every level In those final years before his assassination King took up the struggle against racism in the urban ghettos of the North he became an eloquent critic of the Vietnam war he laid the foundations for the Poor People s Campaign This widening of his message and his tactics entailed controversy even within his own movement But they point to a consistent expansion of his critique of American injustice and his solidarity with the oppressed It was this spirit that brought him to Memphis in 1968 to lend his support to striking sanitation workers It was there that he paid the final price for his prophetic witness

The Cross and the Lynching Tree James H. Cone, 2011 A landmark in the conversation about race and religion in America They put him to death by hanging him on a tree Acts 10 39 The cross and the lynching tree are the two most emotionally charged symbols in the history of the African American community In this powerful new work theologian James H Cone explores these symbols and their interconnection in the history and souls of black folk Both the cross and the lynching tree represent the worst in human beings and at the same time a thirst for life that refuses to let the worst determine our final meaning While the lynching tree symbolized white power and black death the cross symbolizes divine power and black life God overcoming the power of sin and death For African Americans the image of Jesus hung on a tree to die powerfully grounded their faith that God was with them even in the suffering of the lynching era In a work that spans social history theology and cultural studies Cone explores the message of the spirituals and the power of the blues the passion and of Emmet Till and the engaged vision of Martin Luther King Jr he invokes the spirits of Billie Holiday and Langston Hughes Fannie Lou Hamer and Ida B Wells and the witness of black artists writers preachers and fighters for justice And he remembers the victims especially the 5 000 who perished during the lynching period Through their witness he contemplates the greatest challenge of any Christian theology to explain how life can be made meaningful in the face of death and injustice
