Hoping for Rain Catherine Kerr-Phillips,2013-10-01 Catherine is a fifteen year old schoolgirl who wishes she could just be that little bit more popular and is sure that once she improves herself everything will be brilliant the taunts will stop and everyone will accept her for who she is Her new year s resolution is to lose weight just like many of her friends But whereas her friends tire quickly of their diets Catherine is fuelled by self loathing and gets the results she wants fast She can t stop and her diet rapidly becomes a nightmarish cycle of starving and tortuous exercise routines As her body shuts down and begins to break Catherine can feel her grip on life slipping away and realise she doesn t want to die But anorexia is an illness that doesn t like being cured and how do you get better when you re the germ for your own disease

Waiting for Rain Nicholas Gabriel Arons,2004-10 Drawing on interviews with artists and poets and on his own experiences in the Brazilian Northeast Arons has written an account of how drought has impacted the region s culture He intertwines ecological social and political issues with the words of some of Brazil s most prominent authors and folk poets to show how themes surrounding drought hunger migration endurance nostalgia for the land have become deeply embedded in Nordeste identity Through this tapestry of sources Arons shows that what is often thought of as a natural phenomenon is actually the result of centuries of social inequality political corruption and unsustainable land use BOOK JACKET
